This document focuses on the exchange mechanism between WebCenter Content and external documents during checkin et Checkout steps:

How the custom properties are converted into Metadata and how Metadata are injected in document after checkout or download

- The Content Categorizer Component is used for extracting Custom properties from any kind of document format (MS Office, PDF, HTML, Image, etc.)
- The desktopTag Component is used for injecting Metadata in custom properties of MS Office documents only

Oracle.Webcenter.Content.Categorizer